

Senator HATCH. How about you, Ms. Myers?

Ms. BERRY. When she could stand up in front of the world and say "I did not know Phyllis Berry and Phyllis Berry does not know me," I can imagine she probably would say anything. I mean, I exist and I existed then. I worked very closely with her, and that wasn't the truth, so it seems to me that if she could not tell the truth on one thing, she could not tell the truth on another.

Senator HATCH. Ms. Alvarez?

Ms. ALVAREZ. I cannot believe one word of her testimony. That is not the Clarence Thomas I know. That is not the Clarence Thomas I worked with.

Senator HATCH. You heard Chairman Thomas' testimony with regard to the allegations that she made on three successive occasions, once to the FBI, once in her 4-page single-spaced typewritten statement, and another one when she appeared here before this committee last Friday, and you heard Judge Thomas' response to that.

Ms. FITCH. Yes, Senator, he said he categorically denied her allegations.

Senator HATCH. He did deny them.

Ms. FITCH. Yes.

Senator HATCH. Did you hear his response on the negative stereotypes?

Ms. FITCH. I heard most of it, Senator.

Senator HATCH. What do you think of those comments made by her attributed to him and his comments back about those comments?

Ms. FITCH. As a historian, I know those comments to be stereotypical.

Senator HATCH. Why would you think she would say that?

Ms. FITCH. Senator, I have no idea. I don't know, but they are certainly kind of pat formulaic statements that people have historically made about black men in this country.

Senator HATCH. Don't they play on white prejudices about black men?

Ms. FITCH. Of course they do, Senator.

Senator HATCH. Of course they do, but why would she use that language, and why would he use it?

Ms. FITCH. Senator, I think what I am trying to say is that it is incomprehensible that she would say these things, incomprehensible that she might believe them. I do not know. I have not talked to her in three years. I don't know.

Senator HATCH. Would those kind of statements, had they been—would those kind of statements, as they are, would they tend to turn some people in this country against Clarence Thomas?

Ms. FITCH. Senator, I have been in the street a lot lately listening to people's conversations, and they have been talking about this process and about this man, and I am finding that most people are concerned about the seriousness of the allegations, they take the issue of sexual harassment seriously. They are not discounting that. They do not believe the things that are being said about this man. They are too pat, they don't—even for people who don't know him—don't think they seem to hang very well together.

Senator HATCH. Now, have any of you women ever heard of any male using that type of language, in order to obtain a date with a woman?

Ms. FITCH. Senator, this was not to obtain a date with me, but when I taught at Sangamon State University in Illinois, in a room with four other people, including an older man who was old enough to be my father, a Federal contract compliance officer said some things like that to me, and nobody said anything in response. I was very hurt by that. I stayed away from him. He had no jurisdiction or authority over me. It's possible for people to say things like that. It is improbable that this man said those things.

Senator HATCH. Well, what do the rest of you feel about that?

Ms. HOLT. I agree that it's impossible for Clarence Thomas to have said those things.

Senator HATCH. Ms. Alvarez.

Ms. ALVAREZ. I agree that it is absolutely impossible for Clarence to have said it.

Senator HATCH. Ms. Berry.

Ms. BERRY. It's impossible and not a great deductive method in my way of thinking. [Laughter.]

Senator HATCH. Well, you know, I hate to tell you this, but I agree with that. You know, people all over this country are trying to figure out how somebody could testify in such a believable manner and say the cumulative total of those awful, ugly, terrible sexual things and expect a woman to date him or expect some form of a relationship with a woman.

It bothers me, because she appears to believe everything that she said, and I myself don't want to call her a liar. But as an old trial lawyer, I have seen witnesses just like that who believe every word they say and every word is absolutely wrong and we have proven it wrong and they still believe it.

I am highly offended, having been the coauthor, along with Senator Kennedy, of the Polygraph Protection Act to protect employees from being forced to go through polygraphs, that this group of handlers of Professor Hill have had her undergo a polygraph.

I can tell you right now, you can find a polygraph operator for anything you want to find them for. There are some very good ones and there are some lousy ones, and a whole raft in between. And to do that and interject that in the middle of this is pathetic, as if it has any relevance whatsoever. It wouldn't even be admissible in a court of law.

Now, I just want to ask you this last question. I have known Judge Thomas for 11 years. I have sat in on all five of his confirmation proceedings. I presided over three of them, as chairman of the Labor Committee. And I have never seen anything to indicate that he would treat any human being like this woman says he treated her.

I am going to ask you to search your minds one last time: Is there anything that could have been misconstrued or construed, in your opinion, that could have caused anyone, including Anita Hill, to say what she did here to the whole world?

Ms. HOLT. Senator, since these allegations surfaced, that is all I've really done, is wonder why——

Senator HATCH. Me, too.
